Hi Prof

I just wanted to say thank you for the placement period I had at the BMR. I think I learnt a lot and I certainly enjoyed it (I'm not sure if I was supposed to enjoy it so much judging what the others say about their placements). Thank you also for attending the mid-year review. I was expecting a much more difficult 'grilling' so I was grateful for your presence there.

I was reminded from the MARC supervisors that there is another proposal presentation taking place on the 17th or 18th July where we are supposed to present our methodology. Would you be able to attend this and which day (and general time) would suit you best? I am busy doing more reading and am quite excited about my new proposal.

Kind regards
Christine Bothma

Dear Christine

It was a pleasure hosting you and enjoyed your effervescent presence. Your diligent work in the laboratory and interest in neuroscience is appreciated and we are happy that you enjoyed your time here. We look forward to hosting you again!

I would obviously like to attend the proposal presentation. Please let me know of the date once confirmed.

Kind regards
